AN I. C. DEAL.

VILL SECURE CONTROL OF TWO NORTHWESTERN ROADS.

New York, March 28.—It is stated soday on authority that a deal for the New York, March 28 .- It is state acquisition of the Minneapolis and St. ouis and the Iowa Central by I. C. will shortly be closed. Negotiations have been pending for some time. The Illinois Central offered to guarantee 4 per cent on the common stock of the Minneapolis and St. Louis, while the owners of the latter held out for 5, laiming that the company is now earning upward of 7 per cent on the common. The plan is for the Minnepolis and St. Louis first to absorb the lowa Central, with an exchange of finneapolis and St. Louis stock for wa Central stock on an agreed ba

There will be no trouble about the nerger of the two smaller railroads, for both of them are controlled by the me group of capitalists. The acquisition of these two roads would give the Illinois Central an entrance into St. Paul and Minneapolis, and also give it better control of Iowa and Southern Minnesota territory. The Minneapolis and St. Louis has $6,000,-000 of common and $4,000,000 of 5 per cent preferred. The Iowa Central has $8,512,000 of common and $5,-70,000 5 per cent preferred. The leal in behalf of the Illinois Central s being conducted by E. H. Harrinan, who is one of the controlling en in that property.
